

1. What is the very popular red grape of Australia?
Shiraz (Syrah)
2. What can viticulturists do in a vineyard to prevent grapes from becoming sunburned?
Canopy management - maintain leaf cover for shade
3. During harvest, in a very hot climate, what can be done to ensure the grapes are in good condition when they arrive at the winery for processing?
Harvest at night or early morning
4. What U.S. state does Australia's wine history resemble? Why?
California
5. Do the Australians follow traditional or innovative practices?
Innovative
6. Name the white grape that New Zealand is famous for producing?
Sauvignon Blanc
7. Are New Zealand's wines generally more expensive than Australia's? If so, why?
Yes
8. What is the New Zealand red grape that is gaining international popularity?
Pinot Noir
9. How is New Zealand able to achieve riper fruit flavors than other cool climate regions?
High sunlight intensity (UV levels) and long daylight hours
10. What is the largest wine district in New Zealand?
Marlborough