Beer : Cherry Chouffe

Ale or Lager? : Ale

Style : Fruit and Field Beer

Color (scale 0-8) : 5.5-6.5 - a hint of cherry

Aroma Strength (scale 0-5) : 4

Aroma reminds me of... CHERRY CHERRY CHERRY - insanely strong cherry smell. Almost like an artificial cherry flavor

Taste Strength (scale 0-5) : 3

Taste Reminds me of... Very strong cherry flavor, but it like flips to an alcoholic taste, then flips back to cherry. - Ales typically give me a sort of acidic lemon feeling in the mouth, this ale is very subtle

Mouthfeel (scale 0-5) : 2

Finish Strength (scale 0-5) : 3

Finish reminds me of.... Cherry... who woulda thought

Did I like it? 9/10

Would I buy this beer? Yes

Different between a hard cider and non graped fruit is -> they use different yease. Hard ciders use ale yeast.

Acidic like white wine.

Prof. chooses this Cider b/c it's typically a third a third and a third in terms of too much, too little, and just right sweetness
